

The Japanese Gardens, Kildare: Past and Present

Yvonne O' Conor - Horticulturist, Niamh Flynn - Marketing Assistant

Location: Cabinet Kitchen (Entrance beside the Courtyard, beside Main House)

13:45 - 14:15 & 15:15 - 15:45

Description:

This talk will focus on the history of the Japanese Gardens in Kildare, tracing the changes from 1906 to present. The gardens were commissioned by Col. William Hall Walker, founder of the Irish National Stud. The gardens were built by Tassa Eida between 1906-1910 and tell the story of the life of man from the cradle to the grave.

More Info Available on Web: www.experiencejapan.ie