

The World of Noh Costumes

Sato Yoshihiko Memorial, Yamaguchi Noh Costume Research Center

Akira Yamaguchi

13:00 - 13:45

Location: Cabinet Kitchen (Entrance beside the Courtyard, beside Main House)

Description:

"Noh" is a type of traditional Japanese theatre developed primarily during the age of samurai rule. Through learning about Noh costumes, you can come to understand Japanese culture. The Yamaguchi Noh Costume Research Centre has been researching Noh costumes for nearly half a century. This presentation will shed some light on the inner world of Noh costumes, where sophisticated education and spirituality are blended with the excellent aesthetic sense of the Samurais at that time, who mastered both scholarship and martial arts.
